TJBA Leadership Contests

TJBA encourages the development of knowledge and skills beyond the showing and conducts leadership development contests: public speaking, sales talk, herdsman quiz, poster, and photography. The following rules apply across all leadership contests:

Eligibility: To be eligible, boys and girls must be members of the Texas Junior Brahman Association.

Age Division: Exhibitors will be divided into four divisions—Junior, Minor, Major, and Senior. See Show Rule #30 for more information.

Recognition: For each contest, each age division will be placed first through tenth places with All Around points being awarded to first through fifth places.

Public Speaking

The Public Speaking Contest is an opportunity for members to have their speaking ability evaluated and to be part of a larger group of TJBA members striving to develop better presentation skills. Presentations at contests assist members in developing life-long skills. Those skills include fostering positive self-concept, learning decision making and responsibility for choices, developing an inquiring mind, relating to self and others, and the ability to communicate your thoughts and/or technical information to others. The results of the contest give members a measuring tool to help make improvements in future presentations.

Subject Matter: Each contestant is to select their own topic, which is to pertain to the Brahman breed and/or the beef industry.

Length of Speech:

Junior Division: 3 to 6 minutes

Major, Minor, and Senior Divisions: 5 to 8 minutes

NEW FOR 2023 – Preliminary round in each division will be conducted based off video submissions of exhibitor’s speeches, due on or before May 22, 2023 at 11:59 p.m. The upload portal will not open before 8 a.m. on May 16, 2023. Each exhibitor who enters public speaking on their entry form will be provided the information necessary to upload their speech. Any speech submitted after the posted deadline will not be accepted. The top ten speakers in each division will compete in the finals to be conducted at the 2023 TJBA State Show. Finalists will be announced by June 7. In the preliminary round, speakers will be scored out of a maximum of 90 points (the scale below, minus 10 points for questions). In the in-person finals, all 100 points will be used. There will be no carryover of points or placings from the preliminary round to the finals.

Judging: A three-person panel will judge each speaker based on the following:

- * Delivery of Speech (60 points)
- * Subject Matter (15 points)
- * Appearance and Poise (15 points)
- * Response to Questions (10 points) – Panel of judges can ask up to 3 questions

Time Scoring: Point deductions of 1 point for each 10 second interval over or under the target length will be applied.

Attire (Professional): Girls are encouraged to wear dresses or business suits. Boys are encouraged to wear a coat and tie.

Videotaping: Parents may videotape the speech of their own child only. They may not videotape any other child's speech without permission from that child's parent. Setting up video equipment during another child's speech is not allowed.

Visual Aids: Visual aids will not be permitted in the TJBA Public Speaking Contest.

Tie-Breaker: Ties will be broken based on scores earned in: first, delivery of speech; second, appearance and poise; third, subject matter; and fourth, response to questions.

Herdsman Quiz

This contest will test your overall knowledge of the Brahman breed (both history and current events), animal husbandry and livestock characteristics.

Awards will be given to winners of each division. The Herdsman Quiz is a written exam composed of true/false, matching, and multiple choice questions. Participants who answer the most questions correctly will win their division. NOTE: Test taken by Junior division exhibitors will be shorter and not as difficult as the test provided to the other divisions. Testing modifications can be made but the participant must notify the show coordinator on or before June 1, 2023.

Sales Talk Contest

The Sales Talk provides an opportunity for members to have their salesmanship ability evaluated and to improve their individual skills at live animal marketing.

1. Length of Talk: The maximum time of the Sales Talk interaction between contestant and judges will be five minutes. Upon arrival at the judges' table, the contestant will have up to two minutes for an opening pitch. If the contestant exceeds the initial two-minute limit, a timekeeper will alert the judges that the question period should begin. If the contestant chooses to use less than the maximum two minutes for the opening pitch, then the overall five-minute time limit applies to the sales talk.
2. Subject of Sales Talk: Contestants shall use a live bull or heifer as the subject of the Sales Talk. Contestants may use an animal other than their own. The contestant may hold or tie the animal or have another junior member hold the animal during the talk.
3. Judging: A panel will judge each contestant based on the following: Knowledge of the animal they are selling (25%), Organization and style of relaying information (25%), Poise, appearance and delivery (25%) and Overall effectiveness in convincing the judge to buy (25%). The judges will remain seated behind their table for the duration of the interaction with each contestant.

4. Immediately preceding the talk: Contestants will be required to provide the judges with a registration certificate for the animal being “sold”. The judges will use the registration certificate to evaluate the accuracy of the pedigree provided by the contestant and also to ask questions. The certificate will be returned to the contestant at the conclusion of the talk.
5. In the Sales Talk: Contestants should first describe the sales situation to the judges and then present and discuss the strengths and weakness of the animal in conversational style, which includes interaction with the “buyer”. In addition to the registration certificate, contestants may use ONE additional aid printed on ONE piece of paper no larger than 8.5” x 11” – such as performance records, picture or some other small sales tool to help with the presentation. No poster or slide presentations will be permitted.
6. IMPORTANT – Dress: Contestants are encouraged but not required to wear appropriate show ring attire. No shorts will be accepted, but due to the contest being held during the cattle arrival window, exhibitors will NOT have points deducted NOR granted additional points for their attire, provided the exhibitor is not wearing shorts.
